We explore luxurious island getaways and city breaks in the region and add in some shopping hints in Jakarta, Bali, Singapore and Hong Kong.

Our inspirational figures include hotel group CEO and owners Yves Mudry from Raffles Jakarta, CEO and co-founder of the Samaya Bali and Sjetke Jansen of hotel group and owner of the Jakarta.

Maya Ubud Resort & Spa

Within walking distance of Ubud's vibrant town centre is Maya Ubud Resort & Spa, a luxury resort that offers tranquillity, fine dining, beautiful grounds and decor inspired by Bali's arts and crafts.

Designed to offer guests the best views across the landscaped gardens and the adjacent lush tropical river valley and rice fields, the balconied rooms are located within two wings on either side of the main resort buildings, while the edges of the river valley are dotted with rustic thatched villas, some with private pools, that offer complete privacy and refined levels of comfort.

One of the most popular places at Maya Ubud Resort & Spa is the main swimming pool hovering over the edge of the rainforest, ideal for a day lazing around and indulging in poolside drinks and light fare. Another hugely popular place is the spa. Set on the slopes of the river valley amid the dense jungle greenery, the treatments here are sublime and a flower bath soak in a copper bathtub overlooking the valley is an idyllic way to rest.

For the more active, there is a range of activities, including yoga, cycling, nature walks and a traditional Balinese. Gourmands are also well catered for, with plenty of dining options, including secluded romantic dinners and picnics in the extensive grounds. Overall, Maya Ubud Resort & Spa is a charming venue for an island getaway.
