

Many restaurants in Bali present special menus for the festive season. That varies from a grand set dinner, often with accompanying wines, to just a selection of special dishes.

We list here details of a selection of the many options on offer for the various Christmas dates. If they are available over a wider period it is also stated as well as those with dishes that are gluten free,

Our next newsletter will be The Wrap of 2017, a partial summary of new restaurants that opened in Bali during the year, highlighting those which we thought to be extra special.
