Maya Ubud Resort & Spa

Maya Ubud Resort & Spa sits in splendid seclusion, about one hour's drive from Bali's international airport. The resort is bordered by the dramatic Petanu River valley and the villages of Bedulu and Pejeng to the east, and the verdant rice fields of Peliatan on the west. The ten-hectare surrounds feature a tranquil haven of tropical gardens, architect-designed thatched buildings, and 108 private Pool Villas and luxury guestrooms.

Nestled along the river bank is The Spa at Maya, with private single and double treatment pavilions overlooking lush rainforest of the valley embankment and swirling waters below. The spa provides exotic sensory journeys and revitalising treatments that refresh body and soul, such as Pevonia tropical rejuvenation skincare and wraps. There's also a dedicated riverside deck for reflexology treatments. A menu of bath sensations can also be enjoyed in the privacy of your own guestroom or villa.

Dining options at Maya Ubud Resort & Spa include Maya Sari for all-day dining with river valley views, beginning with a bountiful breakfast buffet and a la carte dishes for lunch and dinner, together with river valley views. Asiatique offers regional flavours from Indonesia, Thailand, China, India and Japan, as well as an authentic Teppanyaki counter. The River Café serves up delicious pasta and pizzas, as well as healthy spa cuisine and snacks. Bar Bedulu is a breezy bar off the main lobby area, offering cool concoctions, exotic thirst quenchers and ice-cold brews, plus complimentary afternoon tea. At the open-air Purnama Theatre eat a delicious dinner while being treated to an enjoyable cultural performance.

Among the many recreation facilities at Maya Ubud are two swimming pools, tennis courts, a pitch and putt mini-golf, a yoga pavilion and a gym. Sightseeing activities include treks to nearby villages, nature excursions and mountain bike hikes. There's also a complimentary yoga program for beginners, an introductory Pilates session, nature walks and meditation classes.

It's only a leisurely 20-minute stroll from Maya Ubud Resort to the artist village and town centre of Ubud, with its colourful and bustling central market, unique shops and delightful discoveries for your tastebuds. A complimentary shuttle bus runs on the hour from 9am through to 5pm daily, between the resort and town centre.
