MÖVENPICK

What would Valentine's Day be without a romantic candlelit dinner? Even better if you can sit back and let someone else work some magic in the kitchen whilst you spend quality time with your loved one. Let the culinary team of Anarasa restaurant at Mövenpick Jimbaran tantalise your taste buds with an elegant six-course menu, featuring gourmet dishes such as foie gras, freshly shucked oysters, caviar, lobster, Wagyu beef and a sinfully rich Valrhona chocolate cake. Cou-ples can choose to dine next to the glittering pool, in the garden gazebo or at the Pool Pavilion. As a parting gift, each couple will receive a box of chocolate pralines. IDR 2,850,000 per couple.

THE TRANS RESORT BALI

This Valentine's Day is the chance to treat the person you love over an exquisite set menu, some wines, and yes, some beautiful roses at The Trans Resort. A fancy Valentine's set menu that features hand-selected ingredients inspired by the French cuisine has been meticulously prepared and beautifully plated by the resort's romantic Executive Sous Chef Amaury Belkhanfar. With the support from his culinary team, led by Executive Chef Allen Stevano, a perfect Valentine's set menu is served with love, passion and precision.

The romantic evening here starts with an amuse bouche of "Asparagus, White Truffle and Crouton Royal" that will tantalise your taste buds before the starter of "Foie Gras en Terrine". This special classic French delicacy served with pear and red wine, stimulating the refined delicatessens to the palates. Furthermore, be prepared with an unexpected flavour of "Bedugul Green Vegetables Tarlet and Parmesan Blanc Manger and Quail Eggs". It continues with a charming pre-main course dish of "Risotto like a Bouillabaisse and Seafood Flambe au Pastis with French Rouille Sauce and Saffron Emulsion". The flavourful and juicy "Pan Roasted Veal Tenderloin" is the choice for main course, served with Artichoke Barigoule, Roquette and Wild Parsley Cremeux, together with Pomme Dauphine and natural beef jus will definitely excite the senses. To end the Valentine feast, a special French "Caramel Tart" served with honeycomb, berried coulis, vanilla soil and raspberry sorbet is served before coffee or tea, and Petit Four. IDR 1,500,000++ per couple.
